Down We Go!

Use your pencil to help the firefighters down the poles.

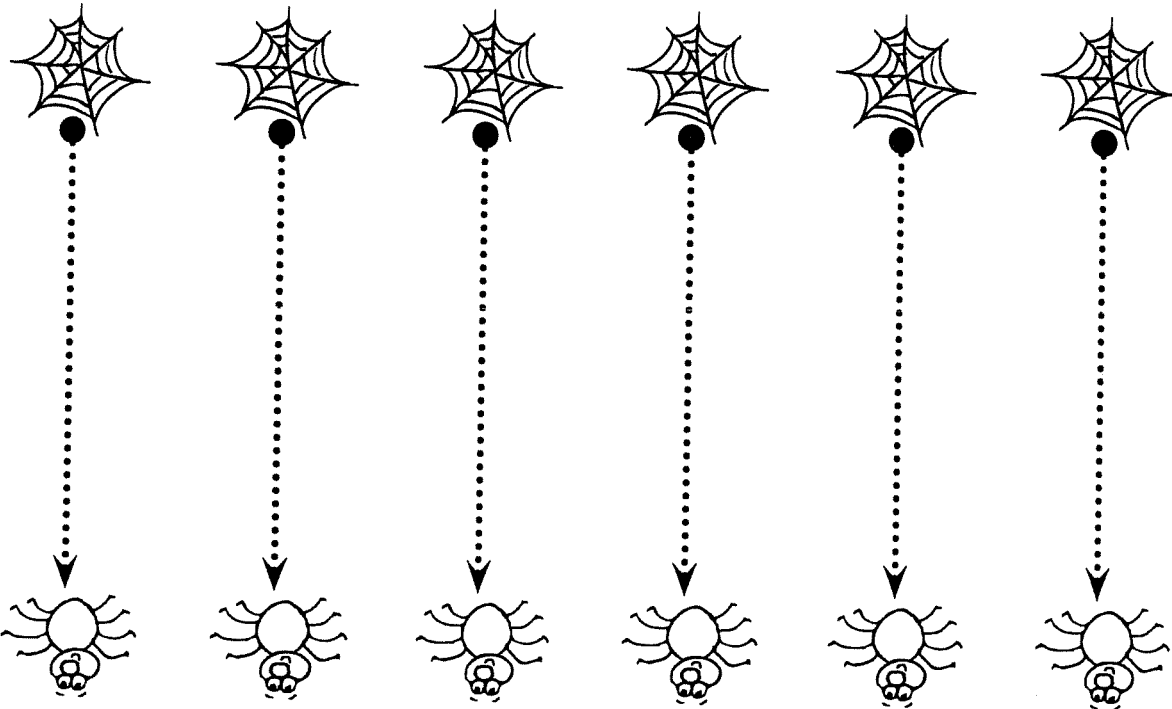

Four vertical poles for tracing. Each pole consists of two solid vertical lines forming a narrow channel. Inside each channel is a vertical dashed line. At the top and bottom of each dashed line is a small solid black square, representing a firefighter's head and feet respectively. The poles are positioned directly below the firefighter illustrations.

Trace the lines to connect the spiders to the web. Use "rainbow tracing." Color the picture.

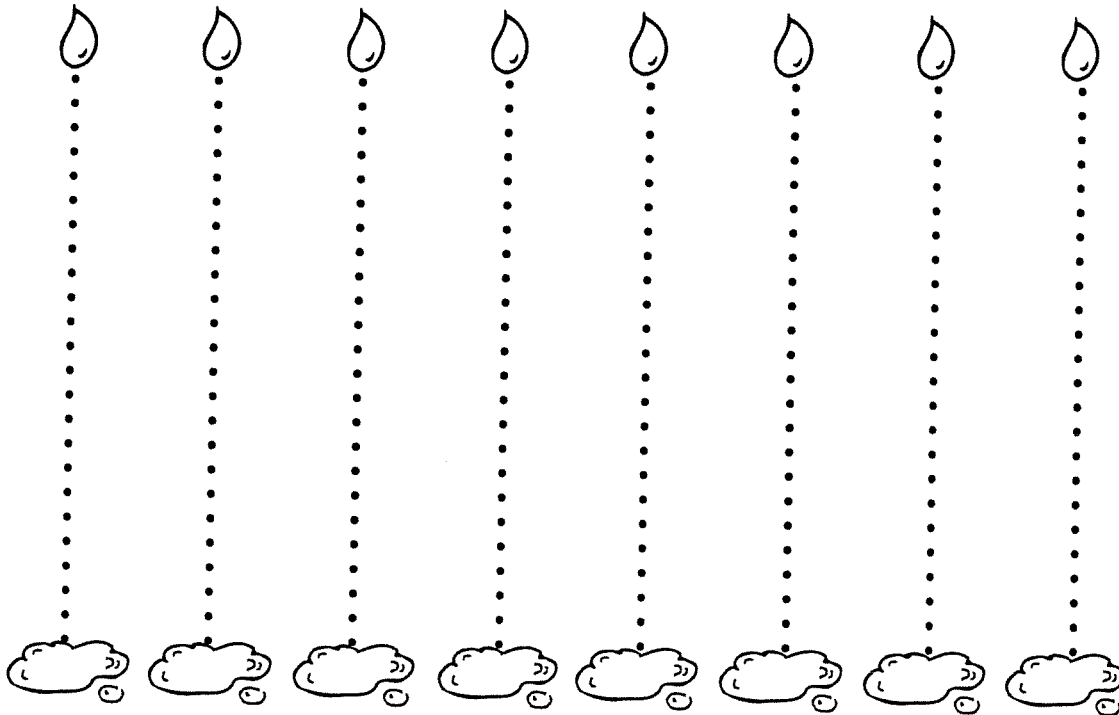

What a Web!
